Subject: RTI application 16-255, 16-256, 16-257

Hi Denise

I refer to our telephone conversation this afternoon in relation to RTI applications 16-255, 16-256 and 16-257. As discussed, under section 13 of the Right to Information Act 2009 (Qld) applicants are able to seek access to documents of a minister. Section 13 states:

> In this Act, document, of a Minister, means a document, other than a document of an agency or a document to which this Act does not apply, in the possession, or under the control, of the Minister that relates to the affairs of an agency, and includes—
> (a) a document to which the Minister is entitled to access; and
> (b) a document in the possession, or under the control, of a member of the staff of, or a consultant to, the Minister in the person's capacity as member or consultant.

Accordingly, under this definition, if emails are contained on the Minister's private email address and they discuss affairs relating to the agency they are subject to the RTI Act and an applicant can make an application for them. Information that does not relate to the affairs of an agency will not be a document of a Minister, even if it is in the possession or control of the Minister or the Minister is entitled to access it.

Examples of information that will not comprise a document of a Minister include:

- party political matters
- matters related to the electorate
- details of activities relating to the Minister's activities as a Member of Parliament
- details of activities relating to the Minister's personal life or activities.

However, if, for example, the information related to both the Minister's electorate and the affairs of the agency, the information would be considered to be a document of a Minister.
Please let me know if you have any questions.
Kind regards
