Important information for applicants

This form is to be used to renew or amend a prohibited matter or restricted matter permit.

Information requested will enable your application to be processed as prescribed by the Biosecurity Act 2014. Your application must be assessed and granted by the chief executive before you can proceed with the proposed activity.

Before lodging this application you should be familiar with the requirements of the Biosecurity Act 2014 available on the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel website www.legislation.qld.gov.au

How to submit this form

- In person to:
Any Department of Agriculture and Fisheries regional office; or
- Via email to:
bqapplications@daf.qld.gov.au
- Via post to:
Department of Agriculture and Fisheries
PO Box 5083
Nambour Qld 4560

Fee information

- For the current applicable fee, please visit www.daf.qld.gov.au/biosecurity-fees
- Fees are applicable until the end of the financial year.
- Payment of prescribed fee must be paid at the application submission for it to be processed unless you have requested a fee waiver.

The chief executive may waive payment if satisfied that the proposed dealings are aimed at controlling or eradicating the matter; and the applicant will not derive any financial benefit from the dealings and the chief executive will be advised of the progress and outcomes of the dealings.

Term of permit

A prohibited matter or restricted matter permit remains in force, unless sooner suspended or cancelled, for the term of not more than 3 years decided by the chief executive and stated in the permit.

Notification of outcome

The applicant will be notified of the outcome within 30 days of submitting the application, provided all the correct information has been received with the prescribed fee unless you are eligible for a fee waiver. The applicant will be notified by post to the applicant's postal address if you have not provided an email.

Privacy statement

The Department of Agriculture and Fisheries is collecting this information; so that the chief executive may assess and grant or refuse the application for a restricted matter/prohibited matter permit.

This information will only be accessed by authorised employees within the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries. Your information will not be disclosed to any other parties unless authorised or required by law.

The Biosecurity Act 2014 (section 231) requires that the chief executive must keep a register of prohibited and restricted matter permits. The register must contain the following three particular items for each permit:

- The name of the permit holder;
- The term of the permit and its expiry date; and
- The type of permit.

The Biosecurity Act 2014 (section 231(3)) requires that the register of prohibited and restricted matter permits must be published on the department's website, www.daf.qld.gov.au showing the three particular items.

Permit conditions

A restricted matter/prohibited matter permit is subject to the conditions decided by the chief executive when granting an application as appropriate having regard to the restricted matter/prohibited matter and the nature of the dealing with the restricted matter/prohibited matter, the biosecurity risk and the ways stated in the permit plan to minimise the biosecurity risk.

Mandatory permit conditions are:

- The holder of the permit must allow an authorised officer to enter premises where the dealings under the permit are being undertaken to monitor the dealings and the holder's compliance with the permit and the Act in relation to the dealings; and
- Other conditions prescribed by a regulation.

Other conditions included in the permit may be about any of the following:

- Required level of containment;
- Scope of the permitted dealings;
- Disposal of the prohibited or restricted matter;
- Record-keeping requirements;
- Reporting requirements;
- Whether the permit may be transferred.

☐ I (the applicant) have read and agree to the permit conditions.
